COURSE OUTCOMES

The Graduate Diploma of Theological Studies is designed for those who hold a three-year undergraduate tertiary qualification in a non-theological discipline and who wish to pursue a graduate qualification in theology and its associated disciplines, specifically those of Theology and Biblical Studies. Students will be able to critically engage Christian thought and traditions, enhance their professional works and give expression to insights for Christian living.

The Graduate Diploma of Theological Studies focuses on introducing students to two core theological disciplines (Theology and Biblical Studies) equipping them with foundational knowledge for further study in these two areas.

Knowledge

Graduates will have:

- an advanced understanding, within a coherent body of knowledge, specifically in the two core disciplines of Theology and Biblical Studies; this may include the acquisition and application of knowledge and skills in a new or existing discipline or professional area

Skills

Graduates will have cognitive and technical skills specifically in Theology and Biblical Studies, so as to be able independently to:

- review, reflect on, and synthesize theological information and identify and provide resources towards complex problems
- think critically and evaluate complex ideas
- apply specialised and creative skills for Christian living and ministry
- research, analyse and communicate theologically related ideas to a variety of audiences

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

Graduates will have the ability to:

- make high level, independent and theologically informed judgements
- plan and evaluate activities and projects within a particular ministry setting
- identify ways that this body of knowledge relates to Christian living and/or ministry

ARTICULATION TO OTHER AWARDS

Students are eligible to articulate to the Master of Theological Studies (MThSt). As of 2022, students will also be eligible to transfer their credit from the Graduate Diploma into the Master of Divinity (MDiv) program.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDATURE

1. An applicant for admission to candidature for a degree of Graduate Diploma of Theological Studies will:
  - (a) have qualified for admission to a three-year AQF Level 7 award from an accredited Australian tertiary institution; or
  - (b) hold, from a university or other tertiary institution, qualifications approved by the Student Support and Administration Committee as equivalent to such an award
2. Notwithstanding the provisions of this regulation the Student Support and Administration Committee of the Sydney College of Divinity may require an applicant to demonstrate fitness for admission as a candidate for this degree by carrying out such work and/or sitting for such examinations as the Student Support and Administration Committee may determine.
3. In exceptional cases an applicant may be admitted as a candidate for a Graduate Diploma of Theological Studies if the applicant submits evidence of other academic and professional attainments to the Student Support and Administration Committee of the Sydney College of Divinity.
4. A candidate for a Graduate Diploma of Theological Studies shall be designated as full time or part time. A student is designated as a full time if enrolled in three units (27 credit points) or more in a semester or part time if enrolled in less than three units (27 credit points) per semester.
5. No candidate for the award may be concurrently enrolled in any other undergraduate or postgraduate course within the Sydney College of Divinity or any other tertiary institution, unless approval has been granted by the Academic Board of the Sydney College of Divinity.
6. Applicants whose entry qualifications were obtained in an institution where English is not the language of instruction normally will be required to demonstrate competency in English by an IELTS (or equivalent) result of 7.0 in all bands of the test and may be required to attend such English language courses as prescribed by the Sydney College of Divinity.
7. Application for admission into the Graduate Diploma of Theological Studies program is made through the Registrar of St Andrew's.
8. Units in the 8100 series and 9200 series may be available to cross-institutional students, non-award students, and auditors after consultation with the Registrar.
