

AUTUMN RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL PROGRAM
 FOR DISTANCE EDUCATION STUDENTS
 4-6 March 2019

Teaching Staff

[Bp] His Grace Bishop Seraphim, College Sub-Dean & Lecturer in Christian Worship
 [PK] Dr Philip Kariatlis, College Academic Director & Senior Lecturer in Theology
 [AB] Rev. Anastasios Bozikis, Associate Lecturer in Church History
 [BPs] Mr Basilios Psilacos, Associate Lecturer in Christian Worship & Byzantine Music Teacher
 [LGJ] Dr Lydia Gore-Jones, Teacher in Biblical Studies

If you are enrolled via distance education in a unit of study noted below, then you are required to attend the on-campus lecture session(s) in Sydney for that unit. If you are attending the facilitation classes in Melbourne which are associated with particular units then you are exempt from this requirement, as are students who reside outside Australia.

During your visit to the campus, you are encouraged (but not required) to also sit-in as an audit student on all or some of the lectures for other units of study in order to acquire some familiarity with other subjects which you might decide to formally undertake at a later stage of your studies, or to refresh your knowledge of units previously completed.

The Academic Writing Workshop is compulsory for new undergraduate and postgraduate students. It is also strongly recommended for any students who feel that they would benefit from refreshing their academic writing skills, or who are advised by the College to do so.

The Library will be open 10:00am to 8:00pm each day.

Tea/coffee will be provided in the common room, and there are cafes and eateries within short walking distance of the College.
