OVERDUE ITEMS AND POLICY ON FINES

The Library's lending policy aims to optimize access to materials, especially those in demand.

Failure to return or renew an item by the due date will result in a loss of borrowing privileges until the item is returned.

Overdue items will not be renewed.

Maximum number of renewals may not be exceeded.

Fines for overdue items are 50 cents per day.

Fines for overdue closed reserve items are 1 dollar per day.

Fines are calculated from the time each item is due until it is returned.

If the item is not returned and deemed "lost" a minimum replacement fee of $100 or the current retail price of the item (whichever amount is greater) will be charged.

Damaged items will be examined and the above replacement policy may apply.

Outstanding fines or items at the end of the semester will lead to the withholding of academic results and/or permission to graduate.

Poor borrowing habits may lead to an indefinite suspension of borrowing privileges.
