COURSE OUTCOMES

The Graduate Diploma of Arts course is designed for those who hold a tertiary qualification in a non-theological discipline, who wish to pursue a graduate qualification in theology, and who are seeking skills in theological studies to enhance their professional work. Graduates will be able to apply a body of theological knowledge in a range of contexts relating to ministry and/or further learning. Graduates will have:

Knowledge

- an advanced understanding, within a coherent body of knowledge, in one or more theologically related disciplines or areas of practice; this may include the acquisition and application of knowledge and skills in a new or existing discipline or professional area.

Skills

- cognitive and technical skills in a theologically-related body of knowledge, so that they are able independently to:
 - review and synthesize theological information and identify and reflect on complex problems
 - think critically and evaluate complex ideas
 - demonstrate an understanding of theoretical concepts in one or more theological disciplines
 - transmit theologically-related knowledge, skills and ideas to a variety of audiences

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

- the ability to make high level, independent judgments related to a range of issues pertaining to Christian living and / or ministry.

ASSESSMENT

Graduate students are expected to give evidence of a breadth and a depth of understanding beyond that of an undergraduate student. In particular, their work should manifest the higher order skills of:

- Analysis - the ability to recognize the distinctive aspects of a topic, and the inter-relationships between them.
- Synthesis - the ability to integrate the various aspects of a topic and see them in the light of the whole.

- Evaluation - the ability to think critically and originally, making judgments based on relevant evidence and methods.
