COURSE OUTCOMES

Graduates will have advanced knowledge and skills in relation to theology and its related disciplines, enabling them to undertake research and/or to engage in professional practice, and/or to continue life-long learning. Graduates will acquire:

Knowledge

- A deep and integrated understanding of an advanced body of knowledge in one or more theologically related disciplines or areas of practice, with a solid grasp of recent developments in those sub-disciplines and areas of practice
- understanding of research principles and methods applicable to theological investigation and practice

Skills

- expert, specialized cognitive and technical skills in a theologically-related body of knowledge, so that they are able independently to:
 - analyse critically, reflect on and synthesize complex information, problems, concepts and theories associated with a theologically-related body of knowledge
 - research and apply established theories to a theologically-related body of knowledge or practice
 - interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and ideas through coherent and sustained argument to specialist and non-specialist audiences in relation to a theologically-related body of knowledge

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

- the ability to
 - apply knowledge and skills in a way that demonstrates autonomy, expert judgment, adaptability, and accountability as a practitioner or learner in relation to one or more theological disciplines, with a view to the building up of the church and the good of the wider community.
 - plan and execute a substantial research-based project, and/or piece of independent study in an area of theology.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDATURE

1. An applicant for admission to candidature for a degree of Master of Theology must:
 - a. have completed a degree of Bachelor of Theology of the Sydney College of Divinity (preferably with a GPA of 2.7); or
 - b. shall hold, from a university or other tertiary institution, qualifications approved by the Student Support and Administration Committee of the Sydney College of Divinity as equivalent to a Sydney College of Divinity Bachelor of Theology degree.
2. Notwithstanding the provisions of this regulation the Student Support and Administration Committee of the Sydney College of Divinity may require an applicant to demonstrate fitness for admission as a candidate for a degree of Master of Theology by carrying out such work and/or sitting for such examinations as the Student Support and Administration Committee may determine.

3. In exceptional cases an applicant may be admitted as a candidate for a degree of Master of Theology if the applicant submits evidence of other academic and professional attainments to the Student Support and Administration Committee.
4. A candidate for the award shall be designated as full-time or part-time. A student is normally designated as a full-time if enrolled in three units (27 credit points) or more in a semester or part-time if enrolled in less than three units (27 credit points) per semester.
5. No candidate for the award may be concurrently enrolled in any other undergraduate or postgraduate course within the Sydney College of Divinity or any other tertiary institution, unless approval has been granted by the Academic Board of the Sydney College of Divinity.
6. Applicants whose entry qualifications were obtained in an institution where English is not the language of instruction normally will be required to demonstrate competency in English by an IELTS (or equivalent) result of 7.0 in all bands of the test and may be required to attend such English language courses as prescribed by the Sydney College of Divinity.
7. Application for admission into the Master of Theology program is made through the Registrar of St Andrew's.
8. Units within the Master of Theology may be available to cross-institutional students, non-award students, and auditors after consultation with the Registrar.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. The Student Support and Administration Committee of the Sydney College of Divinity, at the recommendation of St Andrew's, may grant leave of absence from the Master of Theology. The period of leave shall not be counted as part of the period of candidature for the degree.
2. The period of leave shall normally be one semester after which a candidate may apply for a further period of one semester or else be required to complete their candidature.

CREDIT FOR PREVIOUS STUDY

Credit may be given for previous studies up to 54 credit points. Credit can be granted only from units at graduate level where the outcomes, content, demand hours and assessment are equivalent to that of units in the Sydney College of Divinity award.

DELIVERY OF COURSE UNITS

1. Students are advised that whilst units are available via weekly evening lectures and/or units delivered through distance education, completion of the entire Master of Theology may require enrolment in up to four units offered through a variety of generic modes, or through another member institution within the Sydney College of Divinity, or undertaken at a recognised tertiary institution.
2. Units are offered by weekly evening lectures on campus during each semester. Please consult the Timetable page on the website.
3. Units are also offered via distance education (online) mode within the parameters of the two regular semesters. Online units normally include a compulsory on-campus residential component and all students studying via distance education must account for the need to travel to the Redfern campus on certain key dates throughout the year. Please consult the Distance Education page on the website for more information, and well as the Academic Calendar.

EXTERNAL STUDIES

The completion of a limited number of discrete units in the Master of Theology may be undertaken at another member institution of the Sydney College of Divinity or at a recognised tertiary institution after consultation with the Registrar and subject to the approval of Faculty.
